itelligence® Relocates Corporate Headquarters

October 6, 2006 — itelligence Inc. announced today that its US corporate headquarters will move to a new address, effective November 3, 2006. Through years of enabling mid-market expansion with comprehensive SAP solutions, itelligence itself has steadily developed. This continuing growth necessitated relocation to a more accommodating space. At over 25,000 square feet, the new headquarters offers more than double the capacity of the former location.

“We’re excited to move to our new headquarters,” said Steve Niesman, President and CEO of itelligence USA. “itelligence has helped businesses grow for years, and in turn we’ve grown. The new larger office represents our increased capacity to empower mid-market companies with our SAP services and solutions.”

The spacious new site will enable itelligence to fully support increasing client demand for greater levels of consultancy, licensing, support and hosting. itelligence’s expanding client roster and evolving array of technology solutions, consulting resources and personnel assets demands an environment to accommodate the company’s sustained growth.

As of November 3, 2006, itelligence headquarters will be located at:

7870 East Kemper Road, Suite 300
Cincinnati, OH 45249
